PERFORMANCE WORKSHOP

'By the Way, Meet Vera Stark' Audition Workshop

Time: Noon - 1:30 PM

Teaching Artist: Todd Espeland

Location: The Carver Center

For Ages: Adults (16+)

Join us as we lead participants in this workshop through the steps to having a successful audition. We will give you the opportunity to work on the potential audition scenes and give you immediate, on-the-spot feedback to give you the upper hand in your audition. Learn more about this hilarious and poignant journey of the career of an African-American actress, Vera Stark, and her complicated relationship with her boss, a white Hollywood starlet desperate to hold on to her career as they are both cast in the same Southern epic film.

AUDITIONS & SYNOPSIS

Audition Dates: February 19th & 20th at 7:00 PM

Performance Dates: April 7 - April 23

Performance Location: The Parish Theatre

Director: Emily Campbell Berezowsky

Join us on a 70 year journey through the life of Vera Stark, a headstrong African American maid and budding actress, and her complicated relationship with her boss, a white Hollywood starlet desperately grasping to hold onto her career. Events collide and both women land roles in the same Southern epic, and the story behind the cameras leaves Vera with a surprising and controversial legacy. Hilarious and poignant, By the Way, Meet Vera Stark paints an informative picture of the cultural environment that shaped her as a mysterious screen queen and who, in another time and place, she might have been. Drawing upon the screwball films of the 1930's, By the Way, Meet Vera Stark takes a funny and irreverent look at racial stereotypes in Hollywood.
