PERFORMANCE WORKSHOP

'Red' Audition Workshop

Time: 1:00 PM-2:30 PM

Location: The Carver Center

Teaching Artist: Stephen Carver

For Ages: Men (Ages 16+)

This intense two person drama about art and those who make it is a strong vehicle for actors. Director Stephen Carver will be working with participants on the art of the monologue for this audition as he is asking for actors to prepare a (1-2 minute) contemporary monologue. If you have one you would like to do, great! Bring it to the workshop. If you do not have a monologue, Steve will have some on hand for you. He will give you pointers on auditioning with a monologue and participants will have the chance to work on the monologue to get immediate feedback on how best to prepare. All levels of experience are welcome!

AUDITIONS & SYNOPSIS

Audition Dates: January 21st & 22nd at 7:00 PM

Performance Dates: March 2 - March 17, 2018

Performance Location: The Parish Theatre

Director: Stephen Carver

"What do you see?" "What is art - and who gets to decide?" Famed abstract impressionist painter Mark Rothko asks his new assistant, Ken, these loaded questions. It's 1958, and Rothko has just been offered the biggest commission in the history of modern art - a series of murals for New York's famed Four Seasons Restaurant. He and Ken work feverishly in his New York studio—until Ken begins to realize his answers to those fundamental questions about art are very different than his mentor's. When Ken gains the confidence to challenge his mentor, Rothko faces the agonizing possibility that his crowning achievement could also become his undoing. Winner of six Tony Awards in 2010, this sizzling 90-minute drama makes us all question is there true art in the face of searing ambition? Or does an artist 'sell out' for commercial success?
