Once upon a time…” Inspired by the Grimm fairy tales, this multiple Tony Award-winning musical takes the audience to a beguiling and dark place, where wishes come true; not free. Among the classic characters that wander the woods searching for fulfillment of their wishes are Cinderella and her wicked stepsisters, Little Red Riding Hood and the Wolf, Rapunzel and her Prince, and Jack of beanstalk fame. As their fanciful tales intertwine, they are forced to confront what actually happens after “happily ever after.”

Director Jay Berkow (How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying, The Drowsy Chaperone, Jekyll & Hyde, the Musical) and Musical Director Brent J. Decker lead a talented cast, which includes Civic veterans Gina Maria Chimner (Grey Gardens, the Musical, Sweeney Todd), Kelly Dominique (The Imaginary Invalid, Tartuffe), Kellie Goddard (The Drowsy Chaperone), Ken Holda (Little Shop of Horrors, The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee), Lou Irwin, Jr. (Ragtime, the Musical, Little Women, the Musical), Este’ Fan Kizer (All Shook Up, Sleepy Hollow; a Musical Tale), Meredith Mancuso (Les Misérables), Lynn Hall McLeod (Grey Gardens, the Musical, Fiddler on the Roof), Heather Pruitt (Annie), Zachary Joel Smits (Les Misérables), Elizabeth Stone (Les Misérables, How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying), Corinne Swarthout (Charlotte’s Web, The Somewhat True Tale of Robin Hood), Ethan Waldron (Les Misérables, Jekyll & Hyde, the Musical) and Lori Worden (Macbeth, Little Women, the Musical).

Making their Civic debuts in Into the Woods are Carrie Drummond, Katie Hume, Deontez Lockett, Nicky Mendelsohn and Miguel Ragel-Wilson.

The stage management team is comprised of Stage Manager Kathryn M. Jones and Assistant Stage Manager Kim Boysen.

Into the Woods is sure to sell out quickly, so don’t wait; order your tickets today by calling the Civic box office at 269-343-1313 or online at www.KazooCivic.com. As always, discounted tickets are available for seniors, students and groups of 10 or more.

2013-2014 Parish Theatre season presenter:
A new year brings the excitement and anticipation of new beginnings, fresh starts and renewed promises. A chance to break old habits, make positive changes, and try new things. When I reflect back on the year that has just passed and look forward to the year ahead, I can’t help but marvel at the many reasons why our community is a great place to live.

Here at the Civic, we are excited to embrace 2014 and to continue the celebration of our amazing 85th season. The first few productions of the season were very well attended and received high accolades. From our blockbuster season opener Les Miserables to the endearing Civic Youth Theatre production of Nancy Drew: Girl Detective to the Senior Class Reader’s Theatre’s nostalgic Songs of the Silver Screen to the high-flying family classic Peter Pan – our 85th season has been a true example of great community theatre. So many dedicated volunteers give their time and talent to make these productions possible. It takes an equally large commitment on the part of our sponsors and donors who financially support the endeavors of our theatre and allow us to offer affordable ticket and tuition prices to our fellow community members. And, last but not least, we have wonderful patrons who support our work, enjoy time-honored as well as fresh, new productions, and take time out of their lives to sit back, relax, and enjoy a show.

We set out this season to “shine the spotlight on community” – to be reflective, thoughtful, and appreciative of our generous community. As we flip our calendars and look ahead, we are filled with hope and excitement for a tremendous new year. The remainder of our season, starting with the comedic classic Arsenic and Old Lace this month, promises much enjoyment and entertainment for all of those who love the theatre. Resolve to spend more time doing what you love and join us!

On behalf of the entire Civic family, we wish you a healthy and happy New Year! – KC

“Happy New Year from all of us at the Kalamazoo Civic Theatre!”

On November 29th, we lost a much loved member of the Civic Family; Linda Nemitz. After making her Civic debut in Morning’s at Seven (1966), Linda went on to serve the Civic in many meaningful capacities. An accomplished actress, she entertained audiences with her work in Hello Dolly, Mame, The Robber Bridegroom, Our Town, On Borrowed Time and The Music Man. For fifteen years Linda was our Box Office Manager; always greeting patrons with a smile, a kind word and a hardy laugh.

In 2012, in recognition of her wonderful contributions to the Civic, Linda was presented with our Larkin H. Noble Award.

Our most sincere condolences go out to Linda’s family and friends. How fortunate we all were to have known this incredible woman.

Maddness doesn’t run through the Brewster house. It gallops! As one of the most popular comedies ever written unfolds, theatre critic Mortimer Brewster discovers that his sweet, charming, elderly aunts have taken to relieving the loneliness of old men by inviting them in for a nice glass of homemade elderberry wine. The tasty libation just happens to be laced with a few additives: arsenic, strychnine, and “just a pinch” of cyanide. As the hilarity spirals out of control, Mortimer appears to be the craziest of the bunch, running around desperately trying to cover for his aunts, protect his confused bride, commit one brother and have the other arrested.
