January 17, 2018

The Civic is ready to rock the Parish Theatre with Rock of Ages

It's 1987. Small-town girl meets big-city rocker outside of L.A.'s hottest club on the Sunset Strip. And... they fall in love to the greatest songs of the '80's!

The Civic's production of the hit musical Rock of Ages will take audiences back to the times of big bands, big egos, big guitar solos and even bigger hair! Rock of Ages is what is known in the theatre as a 'jukebox musical' - meaning that it's a musical that uses previously released popular songs as its musical score. Other well-known jukebox musicals include Mama Mia, Jersey Boys and The Who's Tommy.

Director and Choreographer Nicki Poer has assembled a cast ready to take on the towering stack of hits from the glory years of MTV! Audiences should get ready to rock out with familiar songs like "Don't Stop Believin'", "We Built This City", "The Final Countdown", "Here I Go Again", "Renegade" and more hits from Journey, Bon Jovi, Pat Benatar, Poison, White Snake and even a little Twisted Sister.

The Civic's company features a cast of eighteen wannabe rockers, plus an on-stage band led by Music Director Courtney Carpenter that will keep the hits coming all night. The cast includes Civic veterans and newcomers - all anxious to put the loudest, proudest show of the season on the Parish stage. But be advised - Rock of Ages is best enjoyed by teen and adult audiences.

Rock of Ages plays in the Parish Theatre January 26, 27 and February 2, 3, 9, 10 at 7:30 pm and Sundays January 28, February 4 and 11 at 2:00 pm. Ticket prices range from $15 - $25. For more information call 269-343-1313 or visit the Civic's website at www.kazoocivic.com.
